LSE Alumni Association Belgium

Sir Howard Davies
Director of the LSE

Prior to his appointment as Director of the LSE, he was Chairman of the Financial Services Authority, the UK's single financial regulator since 1998.

He had previously served for two years as Deputy Governor of the Bank of England after three years as Director General of the Confederation of British Industry. From 1987 to 1992 he was Controller of the Audit Commission. From 1982 to 1987 he worked for McKinsey & Company in London and during 1985-1986 was seconded to the Treasury as Special Adviser to the Chancellor of the Exchequer. He had previously worked at the Treasury and the Foreign and Commonwealth Office, including two years as Private Secretary to the British Ambassador in Paris.

Since 2002 he has been a Trustee of the Tate. He is a member of the governing body, Royal Academy of Music; Patron of Working Families; and in 2004 was elected to an Honorary Fellowship at Merton College. In 2004 he joined the board of Morgan Stanley as a non-executive director. He was appointed to the Board of Paternoster in 2006 as a non-executive Director, and has chaired the Man Booker Prize in 2007.

New Year's Event, 7 February 2008 With Sir Howard Davies

Dear LSE alumni,

First of all, the LSE Alumni Association Belgium wishes you and your family a very happy 2008!

To start the year off well, we are very pleased to invite you to our New Year's Event on 7 February 2008, 7pm at the Fortis Headquarters (Rue Royale 20, 1000 Brussels).

We are delighted that Sir Howard Davies, the current Director of the LSE, has agreed to be the keynote speaker on a topic which will remain "hot" throughout 2008:

Where will the financial market turmoil lead us?

Afterwards we invite you for a reception to toast with us to the New Year.

If you would like to attend the event, please fill out the attached Word document and RSVP to Florian before 25 January at: Florian@lse-alumni.be Places are limited and are available on a first-come, first-serve basis. Registration starts at 19h. The event starts at 19h30 sharp.

We look forward to greeting you in person at one of the many events we are planning for you in this second year of the new LSE Alumni Association Belgium!

On behalf of the LSE AAB

Lieven Brouwers & Olivier Van Horenbeeck
Presidents of the LSE Alumni Association Belgium

LSE and Sciences Po European Internship Fair (Brussels) 14 March 2008

LSE Career Services organises its annual career/internship fair in Brussels along with Sciences Po and the LSE Alumni Association Belgium.

The Brussels Career Fair will take place on Friday, 14 March 2008 at the Stanhope Hotel from 10.00 to 13.00. The goal of the career fair is to give LSE students the opportunity to explore career options in Brussels.

As LSE alumni in Belgium, we invite you and your employers to partake in this event. It will be an excellent chance to meet with high calibre students from your alma mater, who could become your future employees, interns, and fellow LSE Alumni associates in Belgium.

Attendance is free for employers. To register for the event as an employer, please follow the link below on the E-vite.

If you have any questions regarding the event, please contact Andrea of LSE Career Services by email: A.Kreideweiss@lse.ac.uk.
